

2017 AQHA Annual Report

Access statistics for membership, shows, races, registrations and more in the 2017 AQHA Annual Report.

The American Quarter Horse Association has released the 2017 AQHA Annual Report, which is available to download at www.aqha.com/annualreport. The annual report contains complete statistics for AQHA membership, horse registrations and transfers, show and race statistics, and more.

“AQHA’s annual report dives into the Association’s functions, goals and how we operate as a business dedicated to serving our members in the best way possible,” said AQHA Executive Vice President Craig Huffhines. “I encourage all AQHA members to read through the report for a statistical look at our Association.”

Also in the report, 2017-18 AQHA President Ralph Seekins explains the priorities he focused on during his term as president – the priorities of AQHA members.

Included in the Annual Report are the top-10 membership states/provinces/countries in 2017:

1. Texas	36,182
